

Staff Profile – Dr. Joe Stevens

	Name Dr. Joe Stevens
	Academic Title <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Course Leader – LLM International Commercial Law</li> <li>• Senior Lecturer (Law)</li> </ul>
	Highest Qualification PhD
	Professional Title Fellow of the HEA
	Email joe.stevens@lsbm.ac.uk
Key Responsibilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Joe is LLM International Commercial Law Course Leader</li> <li>• He is a Senior Lecturer on the LLB 3-year and 2-year accelerated degrees</li> <li>• He is the Academic Misconduct officer for LSBM</li> <li>• He is the Peer Assisted Learning (PAL) Supervisor</li> <li>• He is the admissions tutor for Law</li> <li>• He also leads member eLearning Steering Group Meetings</li> </ul>
Biography  Dr Joe Stevens holds a PhD from the University of Bedfordshire in which he examined the lack of judicial review for those individuals subjected to United Nations sanctions over alleged connections to terrorism. Prior to his academic career, Joe worked in both the military and civil police services.
Research interests and areas of expertise <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• International law particularly international criminal law</li> <li>• Criminal law with particular interest in prisons and sentencing</li> <li>• Human Rights</li> <li>• Legal systems</li> <li>• Public law</li> </ul>
Research and Publications  Articles:  ‘No New Weapons for the UN Ombudsperson?’ Journal of Terrorism Research (2011) Volume 2, Issue 3          ‘Implementing ‘Targeted’ UN Sanctions in the UK: Is Freezing of Terrorist Assets Giving Fundamental Rights the Cold Shoulder?’ Journal of Terrorism Research (2012) Volume 3, Issue 2

